ERIC POST YOU HAVE ONE LIFE. LIVE IT.

Entrepreneur, investor, adventurer, competitor. Not necessarily in that order.

Eric enjoys spending his free time volunteering, reading, training for triathlons, and other physical challenges. He has recently completed a 100-mile mountain bike race, multiple 70.3 Ironman competitions and even trekked to the top of Mount Kilimanjaro. With the belief that being comfortable is the enemy of progress, Eric finds ways to push himself in his personal and professional life. He proudly served as a Combat Engineer in the Marine Corps and was honorably discharged as a Sergeant (E-5).
